

Clambake Society Scholarship

Select Column A or B below, and answer all questions in that column. Remember we don't know you, and you're competing with overachievers. Your answers need to show us you're the kind of person we want to win our scholarship. $2,000 for an RHS senior.

Column A

1. Show us something original you've created.

2. In no more than three sentences, compare and contrast a film/song/video/show that's a remake/reboot/pastiche/mashup with the original/inspiration/source material. Please don't use that many slashes in your response. For example, Creed vs. Rocky, Star Wars vs. The Hidden Fortress, "Gold Digger" vs "I Got a Woman", Fargo vs. Fargo, One Direction vs. The Monkees, so forth vs. what have you.

3. Would you rather have ten million dollars or be able to speak every human language? Why?

4. Describe yourself with a plausible superlative in one sentence. For example, if this question were answering itself, it would say "Of all the questions numbered higher than 1, I am least changed from last year." You might say "I am the most observant flautist this side of the Mississippi."

Column B

1. WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

2. Create a Haiku using only the words from any non-sports Northwoods River News article. Include a link to the article.

Example:

hot hand from beyond
being, contested moment
we control our fate

3. After college, would you rather return to Rhinelander, never to leave, or be exiled from Rhinelander, never to return? Why? Please address the basic idea, not technicalities or exceptions.

4. If you could bring overwhelming shame on your family, your community, and everyone who has ever known you, how would you want to do it? For example, you might say "Start a fight as I'm losing the Super Bowl," or "Try to burn down the moon."

Whichever column you choose, Question 1 is the most important. Your answers should say a lot about who you are. A personal answer is usually better than an academic one, and it doesn't have to be written. Videos, music, pictures, non-perishable food items, and nonviolent robots are all acceptable. If you want to say something about speeding tickets or Miley Cyrus, please don't. Please hand in your responses to the guidance office by March 3, 2017 or mail your responses (postmarked by March 3) to Clambake Society Scholarship, c/o AJ Johnson, 1160 Cobblestone Ct, Fort Collins CO 80525.

The 2017 Clambake Society Scholarship is a one-time $2000 scholarship to be awarded to a Rhinelander High School senior graduating in the 2016-2017 school year. To be eligible, you must attend any nonprofit 2- or 4-year college within 2 years of graduation, and be awesome. More information and an awesome PDF copy of this application are available at www.clambakesociety.org.
